

MOVEMENT IS TRIVIAL

Slight Increase in Activity of Stocks Does Not Last
the Day Out.

THE PRICES SAG SOMEWHAT

By Afternoon Market Had Fallen
Back Into Professional Rut.
Lower Level Prevailing.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—There was a slight increase in the rate of activity in the stock market this morning, with some show of strength, but neither lasted the day out. The market had fallen back into a professional rut by the afternoon, and the level of prices was quite generally below Monday's closing. In a few of the prominent stocks the decline reached a point, but the whole movement was trivial and the market insignificant. The professional, who had the market for himself, bid up prices in the morning, but the selling to realize the demand would be attracted by the engagements of gold for import. Their idea was that possible buying had been checked by the free selling, and the tendency of the holiday. The stocks of New York corporations also shot up this morning under operations by professional traders, who had been in the market for the purpose of possible results of yesterday's election. The opening advance was in part manipulated, as was shown by the free selling to realize. The movement in these stocks dates back to last week, when there was a slight accumulation, based on the expectation of a batch of favorable railroad earnings had some effect in helping the opening advance, but the railroads were a minor feature in the market all day. The check on the selling was in United States Steel securities. Both the common and preferred stocks sagged to within a few points of the previous low record. The bonds also weakened sharply, and lost two points on the early advance. The cause of the sagging was not clear, but much of the selling was attributed to London account and gave rise to some rumors of a financial crisis in London, which were not verified. The downward course of sterling exchange was halted, and the price of gold was marked up. The bond market gave place to a heavy tone. Total sales, par value, $2,538,000. United States 3's and the old 4's declined 1/4 per cent. on the sale of $1,600,000 of ship bonds. Total sales of stocks to-day were 437,100 shares.
